

M18 Individual projects

Students will develop their own work. This includes finding a topic, developing a concept, creating the respective movements, choreography, exploration and assimilation of experience as well as finding their working method and form of presentation. Feedback and discussion are included.