
M 6 Projects 1

Artistic and process-oriented projects

In order to guarantee a practice-oriented course of studies students are given introduction of relevant new dance techniques by guest teachers and choreographers as well as professional dancers from municipal theatres and independent companies and through projects in co-operation with the Theatre Academy of the State of Hesse.

Performances:

Part of the studies are public presentations of own choreographies and participation in Lecture Demonstrations.