

M 3 Folk Dance 1

Taught are a stylistic variety of rhythms, dances in groups, solos and couples in diverse formations, from various countries around the world.

A playful handling of the original material and developing choreography will complement this course.
