

Vita Tim Vogler 2017 english

Tim Vogler was born in Berlin. He studied at the Hochschule für Musik "Hanns Eisler" Berlin.
Recipient of prizes at various national and international competitions.

First violin in the Vogler String Quartet since it was founded in 1985. Studied chamber music in Berlin and Cincinnati.

Vogler's main tutors were Eberhard Feltz, Walter Levin, György Kurtàg, Menahem Pressler and Hedi Giger.

Since 1987 extensive concert tours in Europe, USA, Canada and Japan.

Numerous Radio and CD productions.

Artistic leader at the "Internationale Kammermusiktage Homburg", the "Sligo International Chamber Music Festival" in Ireland and the "Nordhessische Kindermusiktage" in Kassel.

Vogler has given masterclasses for chamber music in Germany for "Jeunesses Musicales" in Schloss Weikersheim, "Internationale Sommerakademie Niedersachsen", "Villa Musica Rheinland-Pfalz", "McGill International String Quartet Academy" in Montreal and others.

Vogler has been a jury member in the String Quartet competitions in Bordeaux, Trondheim and Banff.

Teaching at the Hochschule für Musik "Hanns Eisler" Berlin, guest professor for violin at the "Hochschule für Musik" Detmold.

2007-2012 Professor for chamber music at the "Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst" Stuttgart.

International Visiting Artist at the „Royal Irish Academy of Music“ Dublin.

2015-17 chamber music coaching at the Hochschule für Musik „Hanns Eisler“ Berlin.

April 2017 starts as Professor for string chamber music at the HfMDK Frankfurt/Main.